

Bridging the Gap

Presented by: Denise Goodman, Ph.D., ACSW, LISW

Dr. Goodman has many years of experience in social work as a consultant to numerous public and private agencies in the areas of separation, attachment, adoption and foster care. She has worked in child welfare as a resource caregiver, childcare worker, ongoing protective worker and coordinator of residential treatment.

HONOLULU TRAINING

Tuesday, August 25, 2015

5:30pm-8:00pm

Catholic Charities

Hawaii

RSVP by 08/18/15

To RSVP, call the Warmline at 808-545-1130 or email warmline@familyprogramshi.org. Please leave your name, contact number, the names, ages, and special conditions of the children needing care, and whether you are a resource, adoptive, guardianship, permanency, or kinship family.

Space is limited.

(Map on back)

ABOUT THE TRAINING:

Learn how building and maintaining relationships with birth families benefit children in foster care.

YOUTH WORKSHOP:

ART HAPPENING: In this workshop, youth will paint, decorate and decoupage a tin to create an individualized art piece that fits right in their pocket. Open to youth age 13 to 18.

Limited to 10 youth.

- FREE training and childcare open to all resource, adoptive, guardianship, permanency, and kinship families.
- Childcare limited to registered children, ages 3-12, based on availability.
- Dinner will be provided for families during the first half hour.
- Training and childcare will begin at 6:00pm.
- Door prizes to lucky families!

Catholic Charities Hawaii

1822 Keeaumoku St. Honolulu, Hawaii 96822

\ If you get lost or need directions please call Judith Wilhoite at 808-542-4006.*