ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

JoYi Rhyss is the Program Coordinator for the Peer Engagement and Knowledge (PEAK) Program with Family Programs Hawaii. She is certified in several curricula including Hawaii Street Smart for Youth, Why Try, Building Cultural Con-Mindfulness and Skillful Living. JoYi has nections and partnered with schools, community agencies and residential youth programs to work with at-risk youth since 1989. Through dynamic and multi-sensory approach, JoYi uses the small group processes to build skills and resiliency in youth to increase positive outcomes for them. JoYi uses the same approach to provide caregivers, teachers and program facilitators with techniques and tools so they can build more authentic relationships with and better support youth in our community.
